In Cape Town, dovetail with the Design Indaba - a 'must see' explosion of local talent and diversity in The Design Capital of The World 2014.

Or in the Winelands, browse among historic homesteads, explore private art collections and galleries as well as talented craftsmen selling their wares.

Iziko Lo Lwazi is a non profit organisation based in Hout Bay, Cape Town. They make fine stationery products from recycled paper and apply unique beaded design elements hand-crafted by local women. They have the added value of being able to apply your company logo with our skilful beading to match your branding requirements and produce unique promotional items and stationery

Paper product and beading range include conference files, note-books of various sizes, beautiful bound book journals, albums, guest signature books, telephone cubes and cards that are all manufactured from re-cycled paper. Unique corporate gifts are available, beaded USB covers, computer dusters, bookmarks, key rings and much more.

Original T-Bag Designs makes 'Functional Art' out of recycled used, dried tea bags. Each artist has their own individual styles and patterns. There may be similarities, but none are identical. These miniature works of art are then applied to stationary, wooden items like boxes, trays and coasters and even fabric items! For a group of previously disadvantaged people in Hout Bay near Cape Town, South Africa, one cup of tea has indeed provided community, love, excitement and financial security.

Original T-Bag Designs is sustained by the commitment, effort and faith of those involved. Jill, now known as 'the t-bag lady' with her t-bag team, has created an environment where people have gained more than employment. An environment that give and take support and friendship, has created in reality confidence, pride, responsibility and perseverance. Lives are nurtured, each one an asset to the success of T-Bag Designs today. As each tea - leaf is crucial to a perfect brew, so each individual at Original T-Bag Designs is indispensable to a business that has become a family.
